

2019 NOTICE OF BALLOTING

University of Iowa Community Credit Union's 80th Annual Meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 16th at 7:00 PM. The meeting will be held at the UICCU Financial Center – 2355 Landon Road, North Liberty, IA 52317. All primary members age 16 or over may vote for their Board of Directors in person at the Annual Meeting, or by electronic voting from 12:01 am March 25th until 11:59 pm April 11th. Each primary member will only be permitted to vote once, regardless of multiple memberships, or method of voting.

Additional nominations from the floor at the Annual Meeting will not be accepted. Members may vote for up to five candidates (ballots with more than five candidates selected will be voided). The six candidates standing for election are:

DEAN BORG (incumbent) is a broadcast journalist whose work with Iowa Public Television, Iowa Public Radio, and NPR brings news and perspective to Iowans and the nation. He also has contributed extensive volunteer time to public education, including representing nine Midwest states on the national school board of directors. Dean is retired from the University of Iowa's professional and scientific staff, and retired USAF Lieutenant Colonel. He serves on the UI Retirees Association Board of Directors. He holds degrees from Iowa State University and The University of Iowa. ISU awarded Dean its Distinguished Alumni Award, the highest honor to an alumnus. The Borg family includes Dean and his wife, Sheila, as well as four sons and a daughter who are all UICCU member/owners.

DREW DENNING (nominated by petition) recently returned to Ankeny, Iowa after 4+ years with Well Fargo Advisors in Saint Louis as a Senior Vice President - Retirement Strategist. Prior to this, he spent 26+ years at the Principal in Des Moines as Vice President - Retiree Services Group. Both positions were focused on providing advice and education to individuals and their financial advisors on how to best prepare for and live in retirement. He obtained both his undergraduate degrees in Management and Finance as well as an MBA from Drake University. He spent 16 years as a Board member for Premier Credit Union (formally, Principal Financial Group Employee's Credit Union) having served in the roles of Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson and President. He was an active member in the greater Saint Louis Habitat for Humanity program and after 16 years, is still active with the Knights-of-Columbus organization focusing on programs benefiting individuals and the community. Drew's family includes his wife Jane (CPA) and their two children, Matt (attorney) and Maggie (financial services) who live in the Des Moines area while Jane and Drew reside in Ankeny going on 30 years.

MJ DOLAN (nominated by the Committee) serves as the Executive Director of the Iowa Association of Community College Trustees, which advocates for Iowa's 15 Community Colleges. In the past Dolan has held a wide range of leadership roles for prominent Iowa companies such as Risk Manager for Mercy Medical Center and Corporate Trust Officer for Wells Fargo. Dolan served in the office of Governor Terry Branstad before moving to Iowa Association of School Boards where, over a period of twenty years she served the school board in various capacities for Iowa's Schools and Community Colleges. Dolan is a licensed attorney who holds a Bachelor of Business Degree and as well as a Juris Doctorate with honors from the University of Iowa. Dolan has three children and in her free time enjoys visiting them as well as engaging in philanthropic work. She has served on a wide variety of boards for various community interests.

FRED MIMS (incumbent) is a former Associate Director of Athletics with the University of Iowa Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. Before his retirement he also served as the Interim Director of the University of Iowa's Center for Diversity and Enrichment. Fred was first elected to the UICCU board in 2001 and currently serves as the Chair of UICCU's Audit Committee. He has been involved in numerous civic activities including the boards of Neighborhood Centers of Johnson County, MECCA, Hawkeye Area Council of Boy Scouts of America, the Iowa City Chamber of Commerce, the Community Corrections Improvement Association and the Iowa City Human Rights Committee. Fred is a current judicial appointee to the Iowa Sixth Judicial District Department of Correctional Services. On the national scene he has served on the boards of the National Association of Athletic Academic Advisors, the Big Ten Conference Sports Management Committee and the NCAA Division 1A Certification Committee. Fred has received numerous recognitions for his service including being the recipient of the University of Iowa's Distinguished Catalyst Award, recipient of the NCAA Division 1A Athletic Directors Association's Dr. Gene Hooks Award and recognized by the African American Museum of Iowa. Fred and his wife Susan have four children.

ANDRE PERRY (incumbent) lives in Iowa City where he serves as the Executive Director of The Englert Theatre, a 106-year-old performing arts space in the heart of downtown. He is also the co-founder and producer of the Mission Creek Festival (est. 2006), a week-long exploration of performance, literature, and community events that inhabit established venues as well as non-traditional performance spaces in Iowa City. Perry also collaborated with local partners to create Witching Hour (est. 2015), a two-day fall festival that explores the unknown, discusses creative process, and presents new work across a variety of disciplines. Perry received his MFA from the Nonfiction Writing Program at the University of Iowa. He currently serves on University of Iowa's Graduate College Advisory Board as well as the boards of directors for University of Iowa Community Credit Union and FilmScene.

DAVE WRIGHT (incumbent) was born and raised in Iowa and began his automotive career after serving in Desert Shield through ROTC at the University of Northern Iowa. In 2004, Wright and his family moved to Cedar Rapids and purchased what is now Dave Wright Nissan Subaru. He has served on numerous non-profit boards as well as private sector Board of Directors and city, county and state advisory boards. He continues to serve his community through several charities, most recently KCRG's Show You Care. Other recent notable awards include, Best Dealership to Work For – six years in a row, Innovative Dealer of the Year, Man of the Year, Outstanding Volunteer of the Year and Outstanding Business Partner of the Year. Dave's family include his wife Patty, a former school teacher, and their three children. His oldest son, Tyler, now works at the dealership, his daughter, Sydney, is a senior in college, and his youngest son, Tanner, is a senior in high school.